

CODE OF CONDUCT

To ensure that the Junior International Trombone Festival experience is safe and enjoyable, we require all attendees to abide by this Code of Conduct. Please read this carefully, sign at the bottom and return before checking in. Minors (under 18) who are staying on campus must ALSO have this form signed by their parents; all housing chaperones will be given a copy of this for their reference.

1. Campus Departure Policy

a. Attendees under the age of 18 may not leave the campus during festival hours without written permission and consent of Steve Wolfenbarger, Festival Director, or Andrew Glendening, Festival Host.

i. Day Festival hours are from 8:00 AM to the end of evening activities, Wednesday to Saturday, June 28 through July 1, 2017.

ii. For those staying on campus, festival hours are from check in Wednesday, June 28 (starting at 8:30 am) to Saturday, July 1, 2017 after the final concert.

2. Substance Abuse Policy

a. All attendees are required to refrain from smoking at any time during the festival.

b. Use of non-prescription medications or legally prohibited drugs or alcohol is strictly prohibited.

3. All attendees are required to refrain from the use of obscene language at any time during the festival.

4. All attendees are to be at the scheduled place at the scheduled time. No one may leave the group/campus without a festival-appointed chaperone, or prior written permission.

5. Attendees are expected to follow the instructions of festival clinicians & personnel.

6. Attendees are expected to abide by all festival rules and policies.

7. The use or possession of fireworks, firearms, ammunitions, any dangerous ordinance or weapons of ANY kind is strictly prohibited.

Serious Offense: certain types of conduct are considered so serious that they might result in immediate expulsion from the festival. These would include conduct that could result in injury, loss of limb or destruction of property; willful or serious disregard of Junior International Trombone Festival policies, deliberate damage to school property or the property of others; theft; disruptive or harassing conduct, which could include threat of violence, horseplay or practical jokes, bullying in any form. Possession of a weapon or violation of the Substance Abuse Policy would also be considered a serious offense.

Failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in immediate expulsion from the festival. Your parents/guardians will be notified and be responsible for the inconvenience and expense of your leaving the festival. Any registration paid will be forfeit, and if you are the recipient of scholarship assistance, that will be revoked and your parents/guardian will be responsible for reimbursement.

Please sign and return prior to check in.

Attendee

Parent/Guardian